BETSY NUGENT

Betsy has been teaching tennis in the Charlottesville area for more than 10 years. Her experience at Boar's Head Sports Club includes teaching private lessons for adults and juniors as well as assisting with in-house leagues and tennis events. Betsy has also been active in coordinating USTA leagues.

She has a special interest in promoting tennis in the Charlottesville-Albemarle community and has assisted in implementing the QuickStart and high school development programs for Albemarle County. Her passion for teaching juniors has kept her in good stead as she has coached girl's high school teams both at Western Albemarle and at Saint Anne's-Belfield for the past 11 years. Betsy is a certified USPTR instructor and competes at the 4.5 level in the Charlottesville community.
