BRIAN GLASS

Brian has been teaching tennis for more than 20 years. During this time, he has gained a lot of experience teaching in various situations including the country club level. He was also a part owner of a tennis club that catered to all aspects of junior and adult tennis.

Along with his teaching expertise, Brian has coached hundreds of USTA and ALTA (Atlanta Lawn Tennis Association) league teams and many have gone on to win local, state, regional and national titles.

Brian is very proud of his winning percentage with the teams he has coached. He is also very proud of the many adult teams he formed with beginning level players, who have continued to play with several of them winning titles within a few years.

As a player, Brian has played at the highest level of adult tennis in Atlanta, GA. He played and captained an AA-1 team and also played in a 5.0 pro league for many years. Additionally, Brian's wife, Kim, competes at the 4.5 level. They also have a daughter, Lindsay, who recently played collegiate tennis at Rice University in Houston, Texas.
