BRIAN RASMUSSEN

Prior to coming to Charlottesville, Brian Rasmussen spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Valdosta State University helping to lead the men's tennis team to regular-season and conference tournament titles as well as earning a top-five DII national ranking every year he was there, amassing a 67-24 record. Under his guidance, eight Blazers earned First Team All-American accolades and three were named GSC Conference Player of the Year.

In addition, to his collegiate coaching experience Brian has been an ATP hitting partners for various professional players and tournaments working under Craig Boynton. Brian worked at CourtSense Tennis Academy primarily using his assets with ATP Player, Matija Pecotic, who rose from #834 to #201 in the ATP World Rankings during Brian's 17 months on his team. Through these extraordinary experiences, Brian gained an extensive knowledge and a deep understanding of the game of tennis. Brian has a huge passion for the game of growing tennis and loves to be apart of impacting lives through the sport.
